Paris

Giverny

This excursion begins with a drive on the Normandy highway which leads you to Giverny, a charming country village.

It was in Giverny where painter Monet chose to settle with his family; and it was there where he indulged in his love of nature, in his art, his garden and his photography. In Giverny, we will see Monet's home and his workshop all authentically restored. As we stroll in the exquisitely coloured gardens and admire the pond with the famous Japanese bridge we enter the picturesque world of this Impressionist painter where art and nature become one.
