Concert & Dinner in the Heart of Florence

An evening in genuine Italian style, devoted to discovering Tuscan cuisine and the most celebrated Italian opera arias and famous Neapolitan songs.

Our assistant will take you into an ancient and fascinating neighbourhood in the old city centre. In a characteristic restaurant, you will be served a typical Tuscan dinner with excellent Chianti wine. Talented singers will be awaiting you after dinner in an intimate, old setting (the Anglican church), to perform the most beautiful arias from the operas of Puccini, Verdi, Rossini and other renowned Italian composers, in addition to world famous Neapolitan songs. You will be reserved front-row seats so you can enjoy this absorbing spectacle to the fullest.

During the intermission, tea or coffee together with a piece of cake or a goblet of very good wine will be served (included in the price).

Note: Restoration work on the church may be in progress during the year. We apologize to our customers for any minor upset this may cause.
