Barcelona

Sweet Barcelona Walking Tour

It is a long tradition in Catalonia to have desserts at the beginning for great conversation, as a companion to a coffee, or because it's so good you just want dessert first. This tour offers you the opportunity to discover the best kept passion of our country, the desserts. During the day you will visit the most superb places in the city dedicated to sweets, cakes and pastries including a tasting dinner in the first ever restaurant of desserts.

Your food and wine specialized guide will meet you in a specified area of the city centre where you will start the tour. To start, the guide will take you into the world of the old-fashioned confectioners. En route to the Chocolate museum you will visit other milestones, a modernist jewel and a trendy candy store. Upon arrival at the chocolate museum you will be invited to partake in a guided visit and chocolate tasting course.

The tour will commence with dinner at a restaurant that created a new way of conceiving restaurant-style pastry cooking. It is the only dessert restaurant in the world, marrying this risky but meditated idea with the school of restaurant-style desserts. It restores the restaurant-style dessert as an element with its own personality and codes. The result of combining technique and experience eliminates the notion that sweet and savoury elements don't mix. For the dessert lover, it is like entering heaven. The menu is devoted to desserts of original creations, nothing like the typical heavy, fattening sweets you would find elsewhere.
