Barcelona

Montserrat, Wineries and Sitges

Departing from Barcelona at 9:00 am you will arrive at Torres Winery (Bodegas Torres) for a unique experience with a visit to the cultural center of one of the most emblematic cellars of the Region. Here you will enjoy a tour of the winery and be astonished to find the most sophisticated technology at the service of tradition. Wine tasting also included.

At noon you will arrive at the Montserrat rack railway for a ride to the top of the Mountain where you will be astounded by the panoramic view. Once you arrive in Montserrat you will have a chance to visit the Monastery and the audiovisual space "Montserrat portes endins" (history of Montserrat). As an essential part of the Catalanian identity, Montserrat is the spiritual center and guardian of the souls of the Catalanian. Of special interest is the Benedictine Monastery with its 16th century basilica housing the 12th century Romanesque image of the Black Madonna, hence its familiar Catalan name La Moreneta ("The little dark-skinned one").

At 4:00 pm you will departure from Montserrat and arrive in the town of Sitges for a guided tour of the Sitges Romantic Museum; a perfectly preserved 19th century house which allows us to take a closer look at the lifestyle of a family of Catalan householders who lived their splendour during the years of Romanticism. Following the Museum you will have free time to relax on the beach, stroll along the promenade and spend some time shopping. Your ticket includes discounts at numerous shops, restaurants and places of interest in Sitges.

Return to Barcelona at 6:30 pm. End of tour.
